Me, Frida and the Secret of the Peacock Ring discussion questions By Angela Cervantes, author — www.angelacervantes.com

N. A. A. WHEN	E. F and the Se EAC RI		DESIGNATION OF THE PERSON OF T
	***	*
	16		Y

After reading Me, Frida and the Secret of the Peacock Ring, use these questions to start a discussion with your students or book club about the book. Questions may also

2. In the novel Palama's all-time favorite book character is Lulu Penny-whistle, teen-sleuth. Do you have all-time favorite book character that you admire? If so, who is it? What makes this character so sto you? 3. Throughout the book Palama is trying to learn Spanish. Have you ever wanted to speak another language? What language? Why? Do you already speak multiple languages? If so, which languages do you speak? Were they tough to learn? 4. Palama keeps a "memory box" that she fills with photographs, mementos and notecards to capture facts about her deceased father and remember her time in Mexico. If you had a memory box, would you keep inside it? Why? 5. In the book, Palama discovers the truth about her new friends, Gael and Lizzie. She struggles with whether or not to forgive them and help them. What would you have done? Would you have continued to help them? Why or why not? 6. Toward the end of the novel, Tavo writes Palama a long note. In it, he says he that they limeet again bo you think they limeet again? Would you like them to meet again? Why?	and the Secret of the EACOC RING *	I. The novel: four-wee country f	eks. She is not exactly For four weeks or Ion	na leaving her hometo Thrilled by it. Have you ger? If so, where? Hov ere you excited? Pleas	wn to live in Coyoacán, Me; ever moved to another s w did that make you feel' e explain.	xico fo state o ? Were
speak another language? What lariguage? Why? Do you already speak multiple languages? If so, which languages do you speak? Were they tough to learn? 4. Paloma keeps a "memory box" that she fills with photographs, mementos and notecards to capture facts about her deceased father and remember her time in Mexico. If you had a memory box, would you keep inside it? Why? 5. In the book, Paloma discovers the truth about her new friends, Gael and Lizzle. She struggles with whether or not to forgive them and help them. What would you have done? Would you have continued to help them? Why or why not? 6. Toward the end of the novel, Tavo writes Paloma a long note. In it, he says he that they! I meet again? Would you like them	all-time f	vel, Paloma's all-time f Pavorite book charac	-avorite book charact ter that you admire?	er is Lulu Pennywhistle If so, who is it? What r	, teen-sleuth. Do you have nakes this character so sp	an pecial facts about her deceased father and remember her time in Mexico. If you had a memory box, w would you keep inside it? Why? 5. In the book, Paloma discovers the truth about her new friends, Gael and Lizzie. She struggles with whether or not to forgive them and help them. What would you have done? Would you have continued to help them? Why or why not? 6. Toward the end of the novel, Tavo writes Paloma a long note. In it, he says he that they'll meet again. Do you think they'll meet again? Would you like them	3. Throughout speak an language	out the book, Paloma nother language? Who es? If so, which languo	is trying to learn Spai at language? Why? Do ages do you speak? W	nish. Have you ever wo) you already speak m /ere they tough to lear	nted to ultiple n?
whether or not to forgive them and help them. What would you have done? Would you have continued to help them? Why or why not? 6 Toward the end of the novel, Tavo writes Paloma a long note. In it, he says he that they'll meet again. Do you think they'll meet again? Would you like them	facts ab	oout her deceased fo	ather and remember	hotographs, memento her time in Mexico. If \	s and notecards to captu ou had a memory box, w	ire hat that they'll meet again. Do you think they'll meet again? Would you like them	whether	or not to forgive th	em and help them. Wh	new friends, Gael and nat would you have do	Lizzie. She struggles with ne? Would you have that th	ney'll meet again. Do yo	l, Tavo writes Paloma c ou think they'll meet ag	a long note. In it, he says he gain? Would you like them	e hope: